26 & 27 AUGUST 2017 TRADER CLOSING DOWN SALE

We are happy to have Brett and Jenny Brown back this year. They owned and ran the Cathedral Gallery in White Cliffs from 2009 to 2014. Brett has been a fabricating silver smith for 25 years and enjoys the electro forming and electro plating process. They supply a large range of items including rough gem stones, lapidary tools, cabbing & faceting machines, fossicking/prospecting tools, jewellery findings, abrasives and adhesives, silver wire and soldering requirements plus much more. It is sad to hear that Brett and Jenny are selling up so this will be a final sale with loads of bargains for everyone. You can contact Brett or Jenny from 9am to 5pm at:

Our local business owners, miners, jewellery makers, wood workers, artists and creative people will be displaying their wares.

Graeme and Glynis Strike from the Broken Hill Mineral Club will be donating their valuable time to help on the WCMA's Community Stall.

Jason McArthur, his mum Roz, wife Amy & 8yr old daughter Sarah from Mccarthurs Broken Hill Mineral Specimens, will have a wide range of AFL & NRL clothing, caps, flags, stubby holders, footballs plus mineral specimens, salt lamps, jewellery and paintings inside & outside a car boot sale. Sarah will have her own stall for the kids.

Indulge yourself or just get in early for Christmas. There will be opal trees, painted rocks, White Cliffs, Yowah and Boulder opals, pineapples, minerals, fossils, gems and jewellery. Also paintings, painted rocks and leaves, local wood craft, White Cliffs souvenirs, hand knitted goods, second hand clobber, books, shoes, plants and all those other unexpected things you find at a car boot sale.
